ALMA MATER

Here's to our dear Alma Mater,
Ever she will stand
For all that we love and cherish;
Best school in the land.

Praises sing to dear old Epsom
'Til they reach the sky.
Love and loyalty we pledge to
Dear old Epsom High.

Tho' the storms of life assail us,
Always we'll be true.
Naught can break the friendships formed at
Dear old Epsom School.

FOREWORD

Into this annual we have put a part of ourselves---a part of our hearts. We can now look back over the last four years and recall the laughter, the suspense, and the satisfaction of our school days.

We hope you, too, will be reminded of your happy years at Epsom. To this end we have published this annual for 1963--the RAMBLER.

We do sincerely appreciate the kindness and warmth shown to us in our years here at Epsom. We thank you for the guidance bestowed upon us; for when we started school as beginners, we were inexperienced, timid and perhaps a bit thoughtless in our consideration of others. But out of this confusion came a kindness that stiffened us, made us stand erect, a kindness that kept telling us that we were loved, and an inner urge that pushed us until we realized that the paths of our lives are pathways of faith.

During our stay at Epsom, we were guided in more ways than just the obvious things which appeared before us each day. No one knows what large portion of our lives we were under the leadership of such patient teachers as you have been.

With our deepest appreciation, and love shown to you with to express our deep appreciation to you, and in turn to dear friends, we are sending this RAMBLER to Mr. and Mrs. Griffin.

Superintendent of Schools
